Professional and Industry Experience

Alfonso A-Pallete is the COO for Latin American Markets, Alfonso joined KPMG Spain in 1999 from another Big Four. Prior to his transfer to the US, Alfonso was responsible for providing clients with tax advice related to international investments in Spain, as well as restructuring of international and Spanish companies with our affiliate KPMG Abogados

Based in the US since 2005, Alfonso was part of KPMG's International Corporate Services group in NY until August 2013 when he was relocated to Miami to be part of the Latin America Tax Markets.

Since 2005 Alfonso has led multi-jurisdiction tax restructurings in the Latin American region. In addition, Alfonso was a member of the Iberoamerica Tax Foce, a markets program that brought together key Latin American countries along with Spain and Portugal through a go-to-markets initiative. In the past few years Alfonso has been involved in several multi jurisdiction VCM projects in the Latin American region.

Overall, Alfonso has an extensive experience in many areas within taxation, including group financing, holding and IP structures, cross border and general business restructurings
